Elke Hook to sing at Mangrove Mountain Union Church

Mangrove Mountain soprano, Elke Hook, has been singing professionally in Sydney, Newcastle and the Central Coast for over 15 years. Elke's career highlights have included performances alongside diva Joan Carden, AO OBE, for ex-Prime Minister John Howard, for the Archbishop of Canterbury and in front of an Australia Day audience of over 10,000 people. She is currently working with esteemed conductor, composer and vocal specialist Christopher Bowen as a soloist with the Central Coast Chorale and in Sydney as soloist with the Sydney University Graduate Choir.

Elke's outstanding abilities as a vocalist and musician have been widely recognised and appreciated by members of the Arts fraternity. She has been soloist at 'Christmas at the Town Hall' in Sydney for the last 5 years and will be soloist again this year.

We are indeed fortunate to have Elke joining in with the Children's Christmas Service at Mangrove Mountain Union Church on December 11th beginning at 9:30 am. Elke will perform three solo items during this time. This service is being organised by the Uniting Church of Mangrove Mountain.

Everyone is welcome to come along, enjoy the singing, the story telling and the craft activities which will all be part of the free morning's events as well as delight in listening to Elke as she sings with children in mind.
